

Contact: Nick Verhoff
Superintendent, Beavercreek City Schools
937/458-2428

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Beavercreek School District residents invited to speak one-on-one with District leaders

Opportunity to take part in series of "Community Conversations" begins Jan. 26

BEAVERCREEK, Ohio, Wednesday, January 11, 2012 -- Residents with questions about taxation, expenditures or other aspects of Beavercreek Schools' operations are invited to attend a series of meetings billed as "Community Conversations" that will be held by the school district in January and February.

District leaders, including Superintendent Nick Verhoff, Treasurer Stephen Maag, and members of the Beavercreek Board of Education are inviting residents to take part in small group discussions designed to promote greater interaction.

"School funding is complicated and frequently misunderstood, and we want to offer residents the opportunity to sit down and converse with district leaders in an informal fashion," said Verhoff. "Our goal is to provide them with answers to their most pressing questions."

Community Conversations meetings will be held at 7 p.m. at the following dates and locations:

- Thursday, January 26, Shaw Elementary, 3560 Kemp Road
- Wednesday, February 1, Main Elementary, 2942 Dayton-Xenia Road
- Wednesday, February 8, Fairbrook Elementary, 260 N. Fairfield Road
- Wednesday, February 15, Parkwood Elementary, 1791 Wilene Drive
- Tuesday, February 21, Valley Elementary, 3601 Jonathan Drive

For more information about these meetings, please contact Beavercreek Schools at 937/426-1522.

About Beavercreek City Schools

The Beavercreek City School District is one of a handful of school districts statewide that has earned the Ohio Department of Education's highest possible academic rating—"Excellent"—on 11 consecutive occasions. For more information about Beavercreek City Schools, visit the district Web site at www.beavercreek.k12.oh.us.